

PATZ & HALL

California Grapevine

2009 Chenoweth Ranch Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

“Medium-dark purplish ruby; attractive, intense, plummy, cherry and red berry fruit aroma with traces of clove, lavender, and vanilla; medium-full to full body; big, rich, extracted, earthy, cherry and strawberry flavors with note of clove, cedar, and dark chocolate; medium-full tannin; lingering aftertaste. A big, extracted wine though still having good balance and bottle aging potential.”

90 Points
Very Highly Recommended

-Nick Ponomareff
January 2012